Foreword . . .

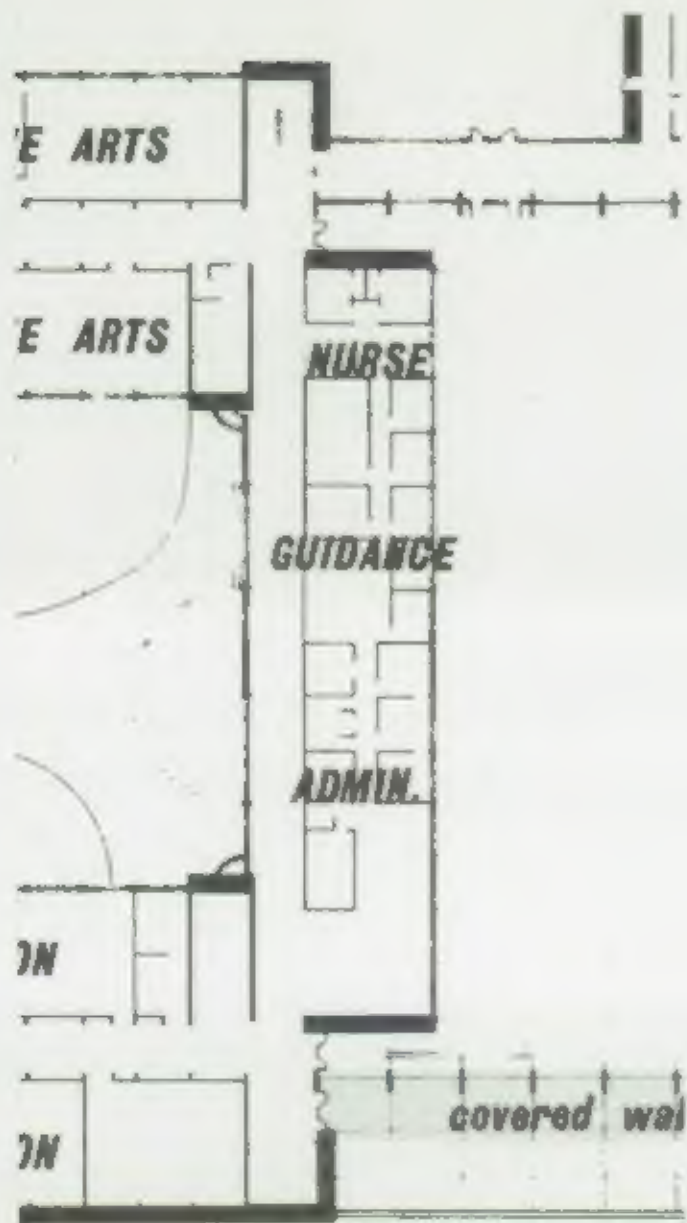

We, the senior class of 1964, have seen several changes effected at Findlay High School that have altered its approach to the realm of education. Through these changes, new and wider horizons have opened to us, both for the classroom and for our future; and the opportunity for physical, mental, and spiritual growth has reached a new peak.

Despite these memorable changes, certain things that know no change have been instilled in us: the quest for truth and the reverence of wisdom. We do not gain these things so much from our classroom work, as we do from our personal evaluation of the ambitions and achievements of those who went before us. We may see the real meaning of our own achievements and goals, and thus we may strengthen our stride toward maturity.

It is our sincere hope that our accomplishments at Findlay High School and the goals it has helped us set will serve to make the foundation more firm for those who follow us that they will be ready for the even greater changes that they must face.

*A Trojan Expression
Of Gratitude
To
The Citizens Of Findlay*

As students develop, so develops our community. As students mature, so does our community rise to the call of progress.

With the completion of the new senior high school building, the citizens of Findlay have met progress face to face. They have re-established their faith in the youth of a growing community and have re-affirmed their belief that education is the key to progress.

For this tangible evidence of faith and for the many educational facilities now open to them, our students extend to the citizens of Findlay their sincere expression of gratitude.

A black and white photograph of five women standing in a row, dressed in formal attire, likely at a wedding or formal event. The women are arranged in a line, with the two in the center slightly behind the others. They are all wearing dark, long-sleeved dresses or gowns. The woman on the far left is wearing a light-colored shawl or wrap over her dress. The woman on the far right is also wearing a light-colored shawl or wrap. The women in the center are wearing dark dresses. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The photograph is framed by a dark border.

A black and white photograph showing a large group of men, likely soldiers or sailors, standing in formation outdoors. They are arranged in several rows. Many of the men in the front rows are wearing hats, while others are bareheaded. They are all looking towards the camera. The background is very bright and appears to be an open field or a large hall with a high ceiling. The overall quality of the image is somewhat grainy and has a high-contrast, almost solarized appearance.

A black and white group photograph of a football team. The team is posed in several rows on a grassy field. The front row consists of players in dark jerseys and light-colored pants, some kneeling and some standing. Behind them are several rows of players in similar uniforms. The back rows consist of coaches and staff in civilian attire. A large, dark building is visible in the background on the left side. The overall image is somewhat faded and has a vintage appearance.

HOW FAR DOES MARATHON
GO TO PLEASE YOU ? ? ? ? ?

We go around the world. Right now, Marathon is operating in such faraway places as Libya, Australia, Spain, Alaska, and Ireland. We search for oil. We find it. We explore its possibilities at our modern research center and three testing laboratories in this country. We refine it into a multitude of fine petroleum products at our four major refineries, and transport it through more than 3,700 miles of pipeline. We go farther to please you at the pump, too. For we know that your impression of us depends on the service you receive at the Marathon station...around the corner. Have you tried Super-M gasoline, lately? Please do. We'd like to put our size at your service.

Around the world . . . Around the corner
